stocks advanced again today. Apart from an interval of heaviness at the start, and some yielding at the close, when traders took profits, the trend was upward. Prominence given developments in the Russo-Polish situation produced early selling which carried down the list one to three points. Pressure soon ceased and the market gradually crept upward on diminished dealings. By the early afternoon all losses had been recovered and many stocks ruled one to two points above yesterday's close. The advance was accomplished in face of a steady fall in AND sterling which dropped five cents, after opening a cent higher. Failure to cause liquidation during the early pressure induced shorts to cover later. and their buying was primarily responsible for the subsequent strength. Low priced oils, sugars, motors, rubbers, shippings, tobacco, steels, international nickel, United States alcohol and American Woolen were carried up
